

Process Serving

Should you wish to take legal actions against another party, you shall issue and deliver a formal notice to that party, enabling that party to respond so as to commence legal proceedings. Such procedure is called Process Serving.

HERALD's Process Serving services provide a high standard of legal support in areas of:

- Collecting crucial evidence
- Locating defendants and witnesses
- Conducting background searches
- Delivering legal documents efficiently and securely

Our Process Serving services satisfy the needs of both individuals and corporations and are proven to be trustworthy by professional clients such as law firms and attorneys which can save you a lot of trouble in a lawsuit.

Delivery of Legal Documents

The reasons why Herald stands out in the service of delivering legal documents:

- We are experienced in serving different kinds of process on behalf of our clients from summons, matrimonial orders, bankruptcy petitions, rent notices to plaintiff's claims
- We deeply understand the concerned deadlines and legal requirements, thus sure to be compliant with court rules
- We pledge to ensure punctual and safe delivery so as to save your time and energy on handling such matter

Locating Defendants and Witnesses

During the course of process serving, a major challenge is finding the defendant or witness. Experience tells us that the difficulty in locating the defendant or witness are usually due to:

- The change of the Subject's address
- The missing of the Subject's contact information
- The person you wish to look for avoid being served legal documents

All of the above situations will greatly hinder the legal proceedings. To find out the suitable defendant and witness for you, we provide a range of actions as the following steps:

- 1 Identify the defendant or the potential witness
- 2 Conduct in-depth background checks to locate the Subject
- 3 Perform media and internet search to obtain insights into the daily lives, personal history and close connections of the Subject
- 4 Physical pretext visits to examine the area and the Subject's life pattern
- 5 Proceed surveillance to closely monitor the Subject's whereabouts
- 6 Look for any expert witness to enlighten you with professional opinion within their area of expertise which will also be taken by the court as objective and reliable
